

Acknowledgements

We would like to thank everyone who in one way or another contributed to the successful completion of this report. In particular, we would like to thank the following:

- Members of the project Working Group for reviewing the report and providing constant guidance and support.
- Project partners, communities, and organizations that helped us to connect with appropriate individuals from the target groups under study.
- Youth and families from the target communities for their valuable input in all phases of the project.
- Healthcare professionals for providing useful suggestions and up-to-date information, whenever needed.
- Participants of the national consultations, symposium, and community briefing for their time, effort, and input, without which this study would not have been possible.
- The CEC executive and member organizations for their support.
- The Public Health Agency of Canada for financial assistance.
